

ECSA General Assembly at the 1st International ECSA Conference Kulturbrauerei, Berlin

Friday, 20 May 2016
16:30 – 19:00

On the second day of the conference, the ECSA invites all members, supporters and interested guests to take part in the ECSA General Assembly 2016. After a brief look at what we achieved so far, we will move on to decisions determining the future of the association. We will hold election for the new ECSA Executive Board and Board of Directors as well as to complete the Advisory Board. New working groups will also be formed.

Participation in the ECSA General Assembly is free of charge. We kindly ask you register using the conference webpage and registration system. Should you want to participate only in the General Assembly and not in any other part of the international conference, you'll get a free ticket through the conference system.

Please note that only ECSA members have a right to vote in the General Assembly. Supporters and guests are welcome to attend.
