

Thursday | 19 May 2016

Time	Kesselhaus
11:00	Opening: Aletta Bonn, Katrin Vohland, Roger Owen
11:30	Citizen Science – Connecting to the Open Science Agenda: Jose-Miguel Rubio
11:50	Citizen Science – Demonstrating Success Panel
13:00	Lunch / Marketplace / Poster session
14:45	The diversity of citizen-science technologies: traditional and new opportunities for interactive participation in scientific research Panel
15:30	Coffee & Tea
16:00	Innovative approaches to civic engagement, learning & education Panel
16:45	Citizen Science strategy and impact development in Germany: Aletta Bonn, Katrin Vohland & GEWISS team
17:00	Citizen Science as an input for better policy formulation & implementation Panel
18:00	Closing day 1
18:15	Transfer to Museum für Naturkunde
19:15	Welcome Reception at Museum für Naturkunde Berlin with greetings by Johannes Vogel , ECSA chair, Director of the Museum für Naturkunde Berlin. With networking tables, dinner & drinks

Friday | 20 May 2016

Time	Kesselhaus	Maschinenhaus	Palais Atelier I	Palais Atelier II
09:00	Introduction and review of day 1
09:10	Citizen science – innovation and inspiration for science: Rick Bonney
09:40	10 Principles of Citizen Science: Lucy Robinson
10:10	Participatory Citizen Science: Muki Haklay
10:30	Coffee & Tea	Coffee & Tea	Coffee & Tea	Coffee & Tea
11:00	2 Tools, Technologies and Applications in CS	4 Embedding CS Into Schools	3 Worldwide citizen science initiatives on light pollution	1 Does citizen science really contribute to nature conservation? Sharing evidence and best practice
12:30	Lunch / Marketplace / Poster session
14:30	7 CS Studies – Engaging with the participatory turn in the co-production of science and society	5 Scientific impacts and innovations of CS	6 Citizen engagement and collective intelligence for participatory Digital Social Innovation	8 CS for environmental monitoring: Engagement and Empowerment in Citizens' Observatories
16:00	Plenary Discussion
16:30	ECSA General Assembly
19:00	Citizen Science Disco & Intro to CS ThinkCamp

Saturday | 21 May 2016

Time	Kesselhaus	Maschinenhaus	Palais Atelier I	Palais Atelier II
09:00	Introduction and review of day 2
09:10	Co-designing research projects: CS meets stakeholder involvement: Heribert Hofer
09:40	Citizen science and the role of museums Panel
10:30	Coffee & Tea	Coffee & Tea	Coffee & Tea	Coffee & Tea
11:00	Citizen Science ThinkCamp I	Session 10 Exploring the opportunities and challenges: CS and Responsible Research and Innovation	Session 9 Data, metadata, quality and visualisation of citizen science data	Session 11 Communicating CS through storytelling
12:30	Lunch / Marketplace / Poster session
13:30	Citizen Science ThinkCamp II	Session 12 Gaming for good: Exploring the potential and pitfalls of CS games	Session 13 Citizen science with small sensor networks complementing traditional insitu observations (...)	Session 14 Science Capital, Science Identity and Learning Through CS
15:00	Plenary Discussion Farewell by Johannes Vogel
17:00	Berlin Citizen Science Fest at Berlin's Gleisdreieck Park			